Parade of produce companies at Southern Exposure

March 2, 2020

TAMPA, FL — The Southeast Produce Council's Southern Exposure 2020 trade show was successful on all fronts, and in many respects it was perhaps the best ever. Following the Saturday, Feb. 29 keynote luncheon, in keeping with the Produce on Parade theme, SEPC officials and dignitaries led attendees in a "Mardi Gras parade" to the expo hall to open the trade show. Southern Innovations is scheduled for Sept. 17-19 in Savannah, GA, and Southern Exposure returns to Orlando, FL, in 2021.
