Produce trends for 2021

January 7, 2021

The ball has officially dropped and the New Year is here (thank goodness), which means New Year's resolutions are in full swing! This year, more than ever before, people are looking for ways to get and stay healthy. Enter the top produce trends for 2021, brought to you by Robert Schueller of Melissa's Produce.

In this video, Schueller breaks down Melissa's top specialty produce items, seasonal trends, and items to be on the lookout for at the grocery store.

So sit back, relax, take some notes, and get ready to make 2021 the year of eating more fruits and veggies!
