Del Monte adds new Homestyle Guacamole varieties to lineup

January 26, 2021

Del Monte Fresh Produce N.A. Inc., one of North America's leading marketers and distributors of high-quality fresh and fresh-cut fruit and vegetables, announced the relaunch of its Homestyle Guacamole in a variety of new flavors, combining Fresh Del Monte's high-quality ingredients with the fresh taste and texture of a homemade guacamole without the hassle.

Fresh Del Monte's Homestyle Guacamole has been revamped to bring fresher taste and flavor to consumers. A non-GMO product, the guacamole is made with 100 percent fresh Hass avocados and includes four unique and delicious flavors: Jalapeño & Tomato, Classic Lime & Garlic, Mango & Lime; and Black Bean & Corn. Equipped with resealable lids to increase shelf life and fresh flavor, all Homestyle Guacamole package varieties are available in eight-ounce trays, while Jalapeño &

Tomato and Classic Lime & Garlic are also available in packages of four two-ounce trays.

“We are excited to offer Del Monte Fresh Produce’s s new and improved Homestyle Guacamole to our consumers,” said Pablo Rivero, vice president of marketing for Del Monte Fresh Produce N.A. “Our customers deserve only our freshest, most delicious ingredients, and we’re thrilled our Homestyle Guacamole can provide high-quality taste and flavors to accomplish that.”
