ORLANDO, FL — The Southeast Produce Council held its annual VIP dinner Monday evening, April 5, at the Swan & Dolphin Resort's Lake Terrace, just prior to the opening of the 2021 Southern Exposure conference and trade show, taking place here April 6-8.

The conference has planned a full schedule of events, both virtual and in person, including the annual Tom Page Golf Classic (named for Tom Page, one of the founders of the council), the STARS & STEP-UPP dinner, two educational workshops, the Southern Roots luncheon for women in produce, the opening gala, the keynote luncheon and the expo.
