The Eastern Produce Council hosted its fourth tailgate event — sponsored once again by the Idaho Potato Commission and Litehouse Inc. — at MetLife Stadium on Tuesday, Sept. 21 in East Rutherford, NJ. This year's featured speaker was New York Giants great and NFL Hall of Famer Harry Carson. Those arriving early enjoyed a tour of the stadium, which included the press box and museum, the commissioner's lounge and the field. Afterward attendees enjoyed a cocktail hour featuring Idaho potato and Litehouse fare.
