
- Advertisement -

Seald Sweet expands sales team

November 30, 2021

Andrew Kamenitzer has joined Greenyard USA/Seald Sweet as an account executive for its sales team. Kamenitzer's 20-plus years of sales and marketing experience will complement Seald Sweet's sales team and support its strong position in the industry.

Andrew Kamenitzer

Kamenitzer began his produce career with Dole in 1999, where he found his calling in produce after managing restaurants for several years. He was successful in climbing the sales ladder, beginning as a merchandiser, then national product manager, onto district sales manager, and eventually achieved a senior sales manager position proving his determination and commitment for the industry.

“Andy is a seasoned professional with a true passion for this business, but not only that, he has a lot of social skills that are difficult to find nowadays. We are certain that he is a great addition to the sales team and will help us move towards our strategy,” said Mayda Sotomayor, managing director of Greenyard USA/Seald Sweet.

“I am very grateful to have been invited into the Seald Sweet family,” said Kamenitzer. “The diversified product line up and the talented team of professionals makes this an excellent opportunity. I am excited to discover what we can all do together.”

Print