Ocean Mist set to feature Season & Steam line

Ocean Mist Farms, a leading grower and marketer of fresh artichokes in the U.S., will showcase its conventional and organic commodity lines and feature the Season & Steam product line extension in the New Product Showcase at this year's New York Produce Show in booth No. 242.

The value-added Season & Steam product line extension includes five new additions to the award-winning microwavable cut vegetable product line. The entire line includes 10 varieties, each with the same convenience, customizable seasoning and exclusive resealable bag technology shoppers love.

"We look forward to being back at the New York Produce Show and to speak to customers in person about our Season & Steam product line extension for the first time," said Diana McClean, senior director of marketing at Ocean Mist Farms. "We had great engagement and conversations with our trade partners in 2019 considering the Northeast is known for its heavy distribution of artichokes. This show gives us a great opportunity for us to put our new items from Season & Steam on display."

The Season & Steam varieties from Ocean Mist Farms include:

- Sweet Baby Broccoli
- Artichokes
- Whole Brussels Sprouts
- Brussels Sprouts Shreds
- Brussels Sprouts Halves
- Broccoli Florets – new
- Floret Medley – new
- Vegetable Medley – new
- Cauliflower Florets – new
- Cauliflower Rice – new
