

- Advertisement -

Pete Pappas & Sons welcomes Mark Pitts as GM

Pete Pappas & Sons Inc. named Mark Pitts as its new general manager. In this role he will oversee daily operations with his forward-thinking approach to continue the substantial progression of the business in recent years.

Pitts brings decades of experience in the food industry and built extensive knowledge in operations and distribution at C&S Wholesale Grocers.

“As the newest member of the Pete Pappas team, I will bring collaborative leadership and experience in end-to-end supply chain to support the amazing growth potential of the organization,” said Pitts. “Two of my goals are to focus on innovation and culture to withstand the headwinds that our industry faces today and thrive in our bright future.”

The Pappas family is thrilled with Pitts joining their leadership team. “Our organization will flourish under Mark’s expertise, which creates a synergy with our leadership team and brings another face of leadership to our growing employee base,” said Paul Pappas.

Pete Pappas & Sons Inc. celebrates its 80th year in business in 2022 and is a wholesale produce supplier, grower, shipper and distributor in Jessup, MD, with farming operations in Tennessee.

Print