

- Advertisement -

---

Church Brothers announces addition of Michael Manderson as VP warehousing, distribution and fulfillment

June 28, 2022

Church Brothers announces the appointment of Michael Manderson as vice president of warehousing, distribution and fulfillment.

Michael Manderson joined Church Brothers as the vice president of warehousing, distribution and fulfillment. Manderson has a strong background in fresh produce logistics over the past three decades.

Most recently, Manderson worked for Taylor Farms as their director of logistics and prior to that as director of logistics & transportation for Dole Fresh Vegetables. Manderson received a B.S. Degree in Business Administration – Finance from Central Washington University and a MBA from Pacific Lutheran University.

Brian Church, CEO at Church Brothers commented, “We look forward to having Michael join the Church Brothers team. Michael’s experience will be instrumental in leading our day-to-day distribution and warehouse operations across our multiple regions and ensuring we support our strategic direction for future growth.”

Print