

- Advertisement -

NMB gives behind-the-scenes look with new Origin Stories series

July 22, 2022

The National Mango Board has launched a new series called Origin Stories, which are micro-documentaries that tell the story of mangos and the people who produce them.

The series kicks off today with a behind-the-scenes look at Mexico, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, with Ecuador, Peru, Brazil, Guatemala and Florida set to drop later this year and into the first half of 2023.

“This was a passion project rooted in data and analytics that tells the story of mango like we never have before,” said Trish Bramley, director of marketing and communications for the NMB.

To view the first three documentaries in the Origin Stories series, go to <https://www.mango.org/origin-stories/>

Print