See ‘All The Best’ in The Gardens at Ball during Ball Seed Customer Days, July 28 & 29

July 22, 2022

Ball Seed is pleased to welcome visitors once again to The Gardens at Ball in West Chicago, Ill., during Ball Seed Customer Days, Thursday, July 28, and Friday, July 29.

Registered guests will spend a full day engaging with Ball team members on ideas to optimize their production for next season, and stroll The Gardens filled with hundreds of new introductions for 2023 from across the industry representing over 77 breeding companies.

The logo for Ball Seed features the word "Ball" in a dark grey sans-serif font and "Seed" in a green sans-serif font. Above the "i" in "Ball" are two red circles. A registered trademark symbol (®) is located at the end of the word "Seed".

The event will also offer plenty of opportunities for continued education and inspiration. The popular Container Solutions Demonstration with Joan Mazat of Ball Ingenuity will once again show new ways to mix the latest genetics, and educational showcases will share trends, resources and best-practices.

Additionally, guests can sign up for guided tours of the Ball campus, including the Ball Premier Lab, Seed Distribution and the new Ball Helix Center for Research and Development.

“Ball Seed is ready to help you and your team optimize plans for 2023. Scheduling your summer visit to The Gardens at Ball is a great first-step to business success,” says Jim Kennedy, sales director for Ball Seed. “From the inspirational mixed containers and in-ground comparison trials, to one-on-one demonstrations with Ball Seed WebTrack, there's plenty to explore in this year's showcase of 'All the Best.' We can't wait to see you here."

Registration is open now! Reserve your visit today and see the full schedule of activities online at www.ballcustomerday.com.
