

- Advertisement -

Envy claims prestigious award win

Envy has picked up back-to-back awards in The Kitchn's annual Kitchen Essentials: Grocery Edition awards – as a repeat winner in the Best in Produce 2022 category.

The highly regarded awards recognize the best grocery products in every category, which are selected by editors of popular food and lifestyle media outlet Kitchn.

Cecilia Flores Paez, T&G Global's head of marketing for North America, said it fantastic to be recognized again as a must-have grocery item for 2022.

“It's great news Envy apples has been recognized as a repeat winner in this year's awards, as the write-up touted Envy apples as 'a brilliant cross of Braeburn and Royal Gala, each bite of an Envy apple guarantees that quintessential snap we crave. Each one is totally crisp and the right amount of sweet. Bonus: Their flesh doesn't oxidize as quickly as other apples, which means you can slice some apples in the morning and they won't be brown by lunchtime,’” said Paez.

“Envy apples continue to shine, the superior taste, reliably crisp bite and sweet juiciness, ensures they are a regular item in customers' shopping lists, and this is validated by winning Kitchen Essentials' prestigious Grocery Edition awards as a must-have item,” she said.

Envy is marketed by CMI Orchards, Rainier Fruit Co. and Oppy.

Print