Brian Hunt takes on SVP role at Church Bros.

Church Bros. has named Brian Hunt as its senior vice president of ag operations effective immediately.

Hunt has played an integral role in ag operations over the last nine years at Church Bros. and has been the managing partner for C&H Farms, a farming joint venture with Church Bros., for the past eight years. Hunt brings over 20 years of experience in farming and harvest operations, having worked for Tanimura & Antle and multiple farming operations over his career.

Hunt's experience, expertise and work ethic bring immense value to the organization. "Brian Hunt has a proven track record with Church Brothers over the past nine years," said CEO Brian Church. "He has excelled on the farming side of our business and promoting him to run the entire operation was a natural choice, he is the right person for the role."

"My vision for the role is to continue to align the ag operations activities across the organization to capitalize on growth opportunities for Church Brothers, helping us to move to the next level," said Hunt.
