
- Advertisement -

Nunes Vegetables names new VP of operations

January 11, 2023

Joe Mollner has been named vice president of operations for Nunes Vegetables Inc.

Since starting in the industry with Harvest Management LLC in 2005, Mollner has worked in all aspects of harvesting, becoming its vice president of operations in 2014.

His experience includes working for growers in Oxnard, Huron, Salinas, Yuma and Yerington on all facets of production, including schedules and varietal selection. Mollner has coordinated cooling companies transition periods and he has been engaged closely with sales on crop plans for all the growing regions.

"Having known Joe for over 30 years and having worked closely with him for the last 18, we are excited to bring such a great leader into our management team. He has shown tremendous loyalty and work ethic over the years and will bring great energy to Nunes Vegetables," said Tom Nunes V, president of The Nunes Co. Inc.

Print