

- Advertisement -

Church Bros. VP expanding role

January 18, 2023

Mike Manderson is taking on an expanded role at Church Bros., effective immediately.

Manderson joined Church Bros. in June of 2022 as vice president of warehousing, distribution and fulfillment. In his time at the company, Manderson has made significant strides at improving processes and streamlining operations and will now take on leadership of the appointment loading and logistics departments.

“Mike’s oversight on logistics and appointment loading will help us drive for more efficiencies and create the support and structure needed as the company continues to grow,” said Jeff Church, vice president of sales.

Print