EVERETT, MA – JOH, a leading regional broker based in Billerica, MA, with a strong East Coast presence, hosted a party for its clients and partners Aug. 22 at the conclusion of a highly successful New England Produce Council Expo, held at the Encore Boston Harbor Resort, here.

Brian Maguire, JOH's executive vice president of produce for New England, recognized the work of NEPC Executive Director Laura Sullivan, as well as the NEPC board of directors, for making the expo one of the best ever for the council.

"NEPC provides access to industry education, social events and growth opportunities for our clients and customers," said Maguire. "The reception we hosted during the event was just one of the moments of appreciation and networking we got to create during the show. Thank you to everyone who attended and sponsored!"
