Grocery Outlet expands into new territory

November 20, 2023

Grocery Outlet Holding Corp. has entered into Ohio with its new Boardman store, representing its expansion into nine states.

The company's presence in Ohio is representative of Grocery Outlet's long-term, strategic geographic expansion. With 455 stores currently open across the country, Grocery Outlet is evaluating growth opportunities.

The store will share Independent Operators Eric and Sarah Senges with a second location in New Castle, PA., only 17 miles apart. Both Senges share a combined background of more than 30 years in retail, including previously operating a Grocery Outlet location in Lake Elsinore, CA.

"We are thrilled to be expanding Grocery Outlet's footprint and opening a store in Ohio," said Grocery Outlet CEO and President, RJ Sheedy. "Our partnership with the Senges family has proven successful across the country and I look forward to helping them make high-quality, affordable groceries more accessible to the community."
