

- Advertisement -

Affinity Group dazzles clients, customers in Times Square

By

Ryan Beckman

December 11, 2023

For the second year in a row Affinity Group held a reception during the New York Produce Show. This year's event took place Tuesday, Dec. 5 at The Knickerbocker in Times Square, and attendees looked out on some of the best views Manhattan offers from the rooftop bar. A large gathering of the company's clients and customers enjoyed an evening of food, drinks and friends the night before the NYPS trade show opened up.

Ryan Beckman

About Ryan Beckman |

Ryan Beckman was born and raised in New Jersey. After studying creative writing at Rutgers University, he attended SUNY Binghamton and earned his master's degree in English. The following year he and his wife, Amanda, journeyed to the province of Ontario to spend some time living in Toronto and cheering for the Maple Leafs. Ryan and Amanda now live in New York and spend their evenings staring at their ever-smiling son, Oscar.

Ryan is always looking for a good book to read, is sure to be a few hours behind on sleep and will never stop loving 8-bit games.

Print