Mother Earth Mushrooms launches new website

February 8, 2024

Mother Earth Mushrooms, a fifth-generation family-owned Pennsylvania mushroom farm, is launching its completely refreshed website this month.

The new website provides information regarding the company's Mother Earth Organic and New Moon Conventional mushrooms while also supplying relevant insights regarding its legacy and heritage of mushroom farming as well as including details concerning mushroom varieties, mushroom handling, mushroom merchandising and links to associated mushroom trade organizations.

The website was designed to be easy to navigate for retailers, wholesalers and consumers.
