Windset launches three new products

Following a significant expansion at its Delta, BC, location, Windset Farms launched its latest products — Yum Yums Cherry Tomatoes, Sweeties Seedless Mini Peppers and Amore Sweet Tomatoes on the Vine — at the 2024 CPMA Convention and Trade Show.

Yum Yums Cherry Tomatoes: Grown in a state-of-the-art greenhouses, these vibrant gems boast a unique balance of flavor, reminiscent of a nostalgic sugary treat. From vibrant orange to deep red hues, Yum Yums Cherry Tomatoes promise a wholesome indulgence straight from nature's own candy store.

Sweeties Seedless Mini Peppers: These colorful peppers offer a burst of natural sweetness and convenience with their seedless nature. A delicious adventure that's both sweet, colorful and hassle free.

Amore Sweet Tomatoes on the Vine: Handpicked on the vine with a gentle hand, these plump, heart-shaped beauties deliver irresistibly fresh flavor in every bite. Whether incorporated into your favorite dishes or enjoyed on their own, Amore Sweet Tomatoes on the Vine will ignite a renewed passion for tomatoes.

"Our Delta greenhouse expansion reflects our unwavering commitment to providing consumers with high quality greenhouse grown produce year-round," said Ryan Cherry, Windset Farms' director of sales. "With our newest Delta facility expansion utilizing modern LED lighting, we're not only expanding our footprint and year-round capabilities but also expanding our product lines. We aim to continue to meet the growing demand for new flavor profiles and unique offerings that resonate with consumers."
