MONTEREY, CA — Always a favorite event of the summer, the Organic Produce Summit did not disappoint this year, as the produce industry gathered for another successful event.

“With over 1,800 attendees, including nearly 200 exhibiting companies and more than 300 retailers and buyers, the 2024 Organic Produce Summit not only marks our largest event ever, but also paves the way for continued growth in the years ahead,” said Keigan Roos, event manager.
